SEARCH FOR MISSING PERSON CONTINUES

On Wednesday 04/06/05, the Connecticut State Police at Troop E in Montville was notified by the Officers from the Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) that a vehicle belonging to a person subsequently reported as missing, was located in a beach parking lot at the Rocky Neck State Park, East Lyme, CT.

This discovery prompted a search of the area by State Troopers from Troop E and the East Lyme Resident Trooper's Office, East Lyme Officers, and DEP officers. State Police K-9s and the State Police Helicopter "Trooper One" were also utilized in the search. Efforts to locate the missing person were unsuccessful.

A continuation of efforts to locate this missing person utilizing the same resources and additional resources such as the United States Coast Guard Helicopter and boat, and a DEP boat are continuing and thus far have been unsuccessful on 04/07/05.

The missing person, a resident of Madison, CT is described as a white female, age 43, approximately 5'6" with shoulder length brown hair and blue eyes. The identity of this woman is being withheld at this time to protect the privacy of the family.

Anyone with information in regards to this investigation is asked to call Troop E at 1(800) 953-7747 (in state) or (860) 848-6500.
